The bazar and art exhibition for the benefit of the Church of the Reformation (Lutheran), being held at 925 Seventh street northwest, is worth a visit, besides being for a worthy object. The Gardon of Eden is a curiosity, with Adam and Eve and all the accessories to make it appear life-like. A delightful lunch is served day and evening by dainty hands. The exhibition will continue during this week.

The arrangements for the annual conclave of the Grand Commandery Knights Templar of Pennsylvania, which will commence in Pittsburg remisylvania, which will commence in Pittsburg to morrow, have been completed, and the affair promises to be one of the most imposing ever given by the State commandery. There will be a tarnede and review of all the e-minanderies in the State on Treeslay, and on Wednesday afternoon a public installation will take place in the Allegheny Riuk, and on Wednesday avening a recepwill be given, which will conclude the ceremonies.

The other fine evening, in an imposing mansion The other fine evening, in an imposing mansion in the Latin quarter of Four and a half street, two soft young lovers were discussing the problem of life. That is, they were evolving a scheme in their powerful minds, the result of which is that they would both live with the sady's father. She hand in his and romantically asked her, "Which slar would be their home when love become immortal?" (For they were then looking out the beautyindow, and it was 11 o'clock.) At this moment the mother came in with a privileged report, and so amended the rule as to break the dead-lock, and the young man departed in a blaze of uncerstainty.

EXCURSION TO GREAT FALLS.

Day of Pleasure-A Visit to "Uncle Dickey's-Gale on the Raging Canal. Quite a large excursion party, including a repesentative of The Republican, left Georgetown about 7 o'clock Saturday morning on the steam-packet Excelsior, via the canal, for Great Falls. The ladies and gentlemen composing the party were General and Mrs. Spear, Mr. and Mrs. John loy Edson, Colonel and Mrs. Marcus Hopkins, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Gardner, Mr. A. A. Brooke.

All, who visit onear ralify and the state of the inteles of that ardons position.

All, who visit onear ralify and for the falls, at diesech him it is necessary to leave the canal about three of Fair miles this side of the hotel located near the falls. A well-beaten path lears to the farry, where "Uncle" Dickey wil be faund, with list boat, ceady to take you across. The path or road leading from the house to the falls is along the old canal, and is one of the most picture-eque and interesting sposts to be found any where along the Potomac. The old canal is now nearly filled up, and an old mill near the falls and a large brick structure, once used as the business office, and a juli situated some distance down the canal, are both in ruins, but are worth looking at, as it is stated they were all constructed under the supervision of General Washington. It is most are both in ruins, but are worth looking at, as it is stated they were all constructed under the supervision of General Washington. It is most astonishing that advantage loss never been taken of the very superior facilities afforded at Great Falls for one of the grandest water-powers on this continent, and it is possible and even probable that ak no very distant day what is now almost a wilderness will be a busy misunfacturing town. The storm struck the excursion pariy about 0 offects on their resure, at that pout where the canal passess near Cabin John's Bridge. It raged ferrely for a few minutes, but Captain Ed-on was equal to the emergency, and by his great cockness and presence of mind averted any disaster. The boat arrived safely in Georgetown at 739, and all on board were delighted with the pleasures of the day. The ladies deserve special meation for their efforts to make all happy, and succee ed most admirably.

It is perhaps unnecessary for THE REPUBLICAN to announce that Samuel G. Kinsley's benefit takes to announce that Samuel G. Kinsley's benefit takes place to night, as the event has been anxionely looked forward to by his army of friends. The Theatre Comique,
The Theatre Comique announces a huge bill of attractions for the week, and the management seems determined to please Washington's theatergoers. Lamont and Ducrow, the inimitable dance nen remain another week, and the new celebrimen, remain another week, and the new celebrities comprise the famous Clipper Quartette, Little Todd and Lew Snow, the Kernells (John and Harry), Miss Kittle O'Neil, W. C. Matthews and Miss Nellie Harris, the Wesley Brothers, W. C. Bryant and Miss Lizzie Richmond, and others of merit. The performance will conclude each evening with that rearing comedy, "Mudoon's Picnic." Those wonderful dance men and Irish comedians, Wheatley and Traynor, have been re-engaged for the week. Colonel Snellbaker closed his season in Bosica Saturday nigut, and it has been a mest successful one.

THE REFURIALOR hast Friday morning published the first account of the mysterious disappearance of Captain H. F. Rollins, of the schooler Emily. of Captain H. F. Rollins, of the schoouer Emily. The police have now ascertained that after leaving his vessel Monday morning (as stated in This REPUBLICAS) when he was last seen by his crew, he slept that night at lyde's tavern. Uniontown: that he left the next morning and returning that night went to his room. Some time during the night he must have left, without anyone knowing of it, and since then nobody knows of his whereabouts. Examination of his room showed that he had not been to bed that night but had sat on the hide of it. As Captain Rollins, was a very steady man and had a family in Haltimore, the police liave suspicions of foul play.

Pennsylvania Railroad Smoking-Car Li-brary.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company has issued a neat catalogue of the library in the smoking-cars running on the "New York and Chicago Limited running on the "New York and Chicago Limited Express." An erroneous impression has gone forth that these blocks are intended for sale and a deposit is required for the use of same. This is not the case. Any passenger on that train may procure them of the porter, to be returned to him before leaving the train. In order to accommodate those who may wish to take with them any book that they have become interested in and are unable to finish before reaching the end of their journey, can do so by leaving the price of same with the porter.

In attendance, with the exception of Mr. Enoch Totten, who is sick. Mr. McSweeney, of Ohio, made ten, who is sick. Mr. Mosweeney, of Ohio, made his first appearance as associate counsel for John W. Bornsy, and proved himself to be a powerful ally to the caure of the defense. Motions to quash were filed by the various autorneys. The motions are very similar, and set up that the Indiciment did not at forth any crime upon its face; that the charges were not sufficiently set forth; of irregularity in the grand inty-room and improper conduct by that be oby prior to the indictment being found. Mr. R. G. Ingersoil argued the motion in Mr. John W. Dornsey's case first, and made a lengthy argument. Mr. Merrick opposed it. Mr. McSweeney followed or the defense, and at the conclusion of his speech Judge Wylle overculed the motion. Mr. Turner's motion was then taken up, but the court adjourned until to-day during Mr. Wilson's argument.

Do not consider this idle talk. Every lady in Washington knows the magnitude of our stock, which, we can astely state, is the set times as large as the stock of any other merbiant in this city. Therefore, prepare for bargains, as by the time we move into our NEW HOUSE we expect to reduce the stock to the smallest in the city. The goods are all fresh, having sent all our old troth to New York and no to be sold to the highest bidder. Call early in the morning to avoid the himmense rush.
